LOTTERY BUCKS:

Do you know what to do with them?

Lottery Bucks are a promotional $5 Scratcher given to players from time to time. Players use this $5 credit towards the purchase of any New Mexico Lottery game. When a player gives you a Lottery Buck, simply scan the barcode like any other Scratcher ticket.

Retailers will receive a 1% cashing commission for the Lottery Buck as well as the selling commission for the ticket(s) that the player receives with the credit.

Lottery Bucks have no cash value.

How to Redeem Lottery Bucks:

- 1 Scratch the bottom area of the Lottery Buck to reveal the barcode on the front of the ticket (if the player has not already done this).
- 2 Scan the barcode.
- 3 The amount of the Lottery Buck(s) will be added to the player's cart balance.
- 4 Add draw game ticket(s) to the cart or let the player pick Scratchers to use the credit from the Lottery Buck.
- 5 Complete the order.

Lottery Bucks cannot be redeemed for cash.

Healthy Play

TRUTH or MYTH:

Overall odds for this ticket are 1:4.05. If you purchase 5 tickets from this game, you are guaranteed to win.

MYTH!

The overall odds of a game are calculated by dividing the number of tickets in a game by the number of prizes in that game. So, purchasing 5 tickets of this game does not guarantee a win.

The New Mexico Lottery wants to remind everyone to play healthy. If you or someone you know would like more information about Healthy Play, call 1-800-572-1142 or visit the Healthy Play webpage on nmllottery.com.

ATTENTION RETAILERS

Retailers that manually settle Scratchier packs when they are received or put out for sale:

Effective July 19, 2026, you will have to activate your pack(s) BEFORE you settle them on the terminal. If you attempt to settle a pack without first activating it, you will receive an error message. This is to ensure the security of your ticket inventory and to better track its movements.
